

European Association for Osseointegration

18th Annual Scientific Meeting - Monaco, 30 Sept.–03 Oct. 2009

EAO RESEARCH COMPETITION 2009

The European Association for Osseointegration (EAO) is pleased to announce the EAO Research Prizes 2009. Two prizes will be granted in the field of oral implantology at the Annual Meeting 2009 in Monaco:

- one for basic research
- one for clinical research.

You can apply for the research competition by choosing the item “Research competition” during the submission procedure. Please note that winners of a Research Prize at previous EAO meetings cannot enter the competition again.

SELECTION OF PARTICIPANTS

The selection of the competitors will be based on the quality of the abstract submitted with special emphasis on:

- Originality and hypothesis of the study, including scientific and clinical impact
- Methodology, including data quality
- Data interpretation and conclusions

PRIZE AWARDING COMMITTEE AND EVALUATION CRITERIA

A group of well-qualified researchers selected from the speakers and moderators of the Annual Meeting, as well as from the members of the Scientific Committee of the congress and the EAO Board will comprise the jury. The final evaluation of the selected competitors will also include an assessment of the quality of the oral presentation and discussion.

PRIZES

Two cash prizes of 2000 € each and a diploma will be granted, one for basic research, and one for clinical research.

The congress fee will be waived for awardees, and reimbursement of travel costs up to 400 € will be offered.
